

What's Going On at Wall Street Services

Wall Street Services is very pleased that so many of our dedicated employees joined in making goodie bags for The New York Foundling. Everyone enjoyed the camaraderie and when we ran out of bags for the treats our innovative participants found a way to make it work.

A warm thank you to the “motivated candy team”. Your contribution was greatly appreciated by Wall Street Services and by The New York Foundling, as expressed in the following email:

November 7, 2008

Dear Alaina,

Thank you so much for your donation to the children and families that the New York Foundling provides services to. Your donation of 89 bags of Halloween treats is so greatly appreciated.

Thousands of children and families depend on us today. Through our preventive, supportive and placement services, The New York Foundling aims to strengthen the lives of children and families. We are very thankful for your kindness as we forge ahead to develop and maintain family and preventive services that save and enhance young lives in our community. Never has private philanthropy meant more.

Thank you again for your support. Together we are helping our community's most vulnerable children and families succeed.

Sincerely,

Alan Shatz
Manager of Volunteers and Community Relations.
